FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Purple Rose Theatre Company Offers First Ever Theatre Class For Children
Kid Purple Theatre Camp To Be Held In Late June

For the first time in it's history, The Purple Rose Theatre Company will offer a theatre class for children this summer. Taught by PRTC Resident Artist Michelle Mountain and Associate Artist Inga Wilson, the Kid Purple Theatre Camp will cover a variety of theatre and visual arts activities and culminate in a showcase performance for friends and family on the final day of class. Students will have the opportunity to develop acting skills, explore movement, learn improvisation and experiment with visual arts expression.

Kid Purple Theatre Camp will be held Monday, June 19 through Friday, June 23 and Monday, June 26 through Friday, June 30. Students ages 6 to 8 will meet 9:30 AM to noon on these days; students ages 9 to 11 will meet 1:00 to 3:30 PM. Cost for the class is $395.00; snacks and water will be provided.

The class will be held at The Chelsea Center for the Arts, 400 North Congdon, Chelsea, MI. Registrations are being accepted immediately and are available on a pre-paid first-come, first-serve basis; full payment is required to register. Participants can register by calling the PRTC administration office at (734) 433-PRTC (7782). Administration office hours are Mondays through Fridays from 10:00 AM until 5:00 PM. Registration forms can also be printed from the PRTC web site: www.purplerosetheatre.org.
