A JUKEBOX FOR THE ALGONQUIN

A WORLD PREMIERE BY PAUL STROILI
DIRECTED BY SUZI REGAN

the PurpleRose theatre company
DO FISH KNOW THEY’RE IN A FISH TANK?

Most of us are familiar with the social comparison of life to a fish bowl. Of course, it’s an impossible question scientifically, at least until Bill Nye tells us otherwise, because none of us can really say if the fish has consciousness of their environment.

In our play today, our ‘fishbowl’ is a group of retirement home rebels! Each from various backgrounds and circumstances but they have created, for themselves, a club within. The Round Table is not a literal glass sphere that they are trapped in, but rather a metaphor for the life they live. And what is life without a little sex, drugs and rock and roll, even if it is from a rocking chair!

Every person in the world has their own story with characteristics that automatically put them in their own metaphorical bowl. Things in your bowl could include your social and economic status, gender, sexuality, race, political beliefs, family structure, and the list goes on. All of these things subconsciously contribute to your clouded and incomplete view of the world, whether you are aware of it or not.

So when we have the whole world to explore and have the ability to come across every person, place or thing, why do we stay in our bowl?

In A Jukebox for The Algonquin, the group creates a scheme, hoping to expand their tank, if not create a whole new one for themselves. But when they get caught, there will be a lot of questions. Will they end up with a floater? Can they raise their consciousness? And how do you miss something, you never had?

We hope this world premiere makes you laugh and inspires you to step out of your comfort zone. Jump on in the water is fine!

SUSAN ANGELO (Peg/Mrs. McDarren) is honored to be performing at The Purple Rose. Based in Los Angeles, she is a resident artist at A Noise Within and Will Geer's Theatricum Botanicum. Favorite roles include Hannah Jarvis, Arcadia; Alice, Dance of Death; Cleopatra, Antony & Cleopatra; Elizabeth, Richard III; Countess, The Rehearsal; Barbara, August: Osage County; Ariadne, Heartbreak House; Beatrice, Much Ado About Nothing; and Madelyn, Women of Lockerbee. Regional credits include La Jolla Playhouse; Pittsburgh Public; Syracuse Stage; American Players Theatre; Indiana Repertory; William Inge Theatre; NYC's Workshop Theatre; Signature Theatre; and The Shakespeare Theatre in DC. She has extensive television, film, voice-over and commercial credits including “Bosch”; “How to Get Away with Murder”; “Criminal Minds”; and “Jack Reacher”. (Fun fact: Susan was Mrs. Sanders to both Jim Gaffigan and the late Norm MacDonald’s Colonial Sanders). Susan has directed large cast classical plays and intimate one-person shows; has taught at many universities, including NYU, USC and CalLutheran; and currently teaches Shakespeare in her private studio. www.SusanAngeloStudio.com Education: BFA (CalArts); MFA (George Washington University)

WALLACE BRIDGES (Johnny) is excited to return to the thrust stage of the Purple Rose Theatre after originating the role of Lenny in Mitch Albom’s Duck Hunter Shoots Angel. He holds memberships with the Actors’ Equity Association and the Screen Actors Guild - American Federation of Television and Radio Artists. Bridges last appeared in a feature film as Rudy in “No Sudden Move” which stars Don Cheadle. Professor Bridges has been teaching theatre arts and directing plays at Eastern Michigan University for more than three decades. He is the recipient of the Fulbright U. S. Scholar Award which allowed him to teach theatre courses and direct Lorraine Hansberry’s A Raisin in the Sun at the University of Ghana in Accra. Bridges recently wrote and performed “A Salute to Fatherhood” for the Big Hearted Stories: On Purpose storytelling event at the Mendelssohn Theatre on the University of Michigan campus.

MARK COLSON (Chuck) is happy to be back at The Purple Rose Theatre Company. He is a PRTC Resident Artist and was last seen playing Sherlock in all three Sherlock Holmes world premiers. Mark also played Richard in the world premiere of The Gaps in the Fossil Record, at The Rose. Other credits include Williamston Theatre, where he has performed in the world premiers of Pulp (Wilde Award nomination, Best Supporting Actor), and The Gravedigger – A Frankenstein Story, along with playing Jacob, in Jacob Marley’s Christmas Carol, and most recently, These Mortal Hosts, (where he received a Wilde Award and Pulsar Award for Best Actor). Recent TV roles include the Netflix series, “I Am Not Okay With This”, “Outsiders”, “Banshee”, and “Low Winter Sun” (see IMDB for complete list). Mark would like to thank the entire Purple Rose production team and supportive Jukebox cast for creating this incredible and necessary theatrical home. Mark is also an Assistant Professor at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor - Go Blue! As always, a shout-out to Team Colson.

RUTH CRAWFORD (Annie) has previously appeared at The Purple Rose in Roadsigns, Welcome to Paradise, Harvey, Morning’s at Seven, and Poetry of Pizza. She’s also worked extensively at several Detroit area Equity theatres. Other credits include The Gin Game at Williamston Theatre; Ripcord at the Tipping Point; Rites of Passage at the JET; Good People at the Performance Network; Arsenic and Old Lace at Meadow Brook Theatre. As a member of the Colony Theatre in LA, her work included roles in The Cocktail Hour, Ring Round the Moon, and Morning’s at Seven. Ruth has also been featured in a number of movies and TV shows filmed in the Detroit area including: “American Rust”, “The Detroiers”, “Low Winter Sun”, “Flipped”, “Trust”, and “Guest Artist” with some guy named Jeff Daniels.
CAST OF CHARACTERS

MARYJO CUPPONE (Josefina) is delighted to return to The Purple Rose and share the stage with this extremely talented ensemble. She is a proud member of Actors’ Equity and SAG-AFTRA. Some of her favorite roles include Celia in Calendar Girls, Jean in Good People, Terry in Sideman, Lola in Damn Yankees, and Tina in Tony and Tina’s Wedding. She is a founding member of Tipping Point Theatre and currently serves as Vice President of the board. Many thanks to Suzi, Paul, Rhiannon, Lucas, the exceptional stage management team and crew for their unwavering support. Much love always to my mom, Billy, and my little men - Shane and Tyler.

ETHAN MAY (Tyler) is thrilled to be making his professional debut here at The Purple Rose. He was an understudy in the PRTC production of In Common, but was (thankfully!) never needed; so this will be his first time on stage since graduating from Wayne State University in 2022. While in school, he played Melchior Gabor in Spring Awakening, Bernard in Boeing Boeing, and Torbjorn Bjornsen in Trivoya Gold! A lifelong musician, he is also a professional drummer who has worked on three studio albums, including Detroit-based band RevulsA’s sophomore effort, “Creep”. Ethan is eternally grateful to the cast and the creative team for their wisdom and support in this process. You can find him on Instagram, Tiktok, and Twitter @ethanmayact
JOHN SEIBERT (Dennis) John’s first appearances with The Purple Rose date back to the theatre’s beginnings and he is more than excited to be back on this stage and to be working with this exceptional group of artists and friends. John originated roles in a number of premieres here including Shoe Man, The Vast Difference, Escanaba in da Moonlight, and Panhandle Slim & The Oklahoma Kid. Other Michigan and regional credits include Tipping Point Theatre (Torvald: A Doll’s House 2, Vanya: Vanya, Sonia, Masha and Spike) and featured roles with Williamston Theatre, Performance Network, Jewish Ensemble and Meadow Brook Theatre; North Coast Rep (San Diego), Alabama Shakespeare Festival, and five seasons with Actors Theatre of St. Paul. Feature films include “Batman vs. Superman”, “Kill The Irishman”, and “Supersucker” with Jeff Daniels. John also serves as a full-time lecturer in theatre at Eastern Michigan University where he is proud to teach and direct alongside his colleague and scene partner, Wallace Bridges. For Uncle John Fly.

PAUL STROILI (Playwright) is a resident artist at the Purple Rose where his acting credits include God of Carnage, Welcome to Paradise and the role of Dr. Watson in the trilogy of Holmes-Adler Mysteries. In addition to A Jukebox for The Algonquin his other plays include Cheese Louise (with Maureen Morley), Plane Crazy (with Cissy Conner) and Last Call at The Aardvark which was recently published by Next Stage Press.

Stroili’s autobiographical solo show Straight Up with a Twist toured the U.S. for nearly ten years, culminating in an LA Ovation nomination, an LA Weekly Award and a twice-extended Off-Broadway run. His screenplay for the short film “The Beating” was utilized by Columbia College for their curriculum in filmmaking. His writing has also appeared in Los Angeles Magazine and The Chicago Tribune.

He is extremely grateful to Rhi, Lucas, Katie, Amy, director Suzi Regan and the entire Purple family. A special heartfelt thanks to friends and fellow playwrights Carey Crim, Jeff Daniels and David MacGregor for their example, their counsel and for where they’ve set the bar. And finally, to Monica who makes all good things happen. www.paulstroili.com

SUZI REGAN (Director) has worked as an actor, director, arts administrator, writer, teacher, arts advocate, or sound designer in the Metro Detroit area for 35 years. Upon graduation from Michigan State University with a BS in Telecommunications, she immediately jumped in a red Dodge van donning cowboy boots and hat, to sing and dance at truck stops across the US for National Truck Driver’s Appreciation Month. Since then, Suzi has been making and sharing stories and is often recognized for her work in professional theaters across Michigan: The Purple Rose Theatre Company, The Williamston Theatre, The Tipping Point Theatre, Meadow Brook Theatre, and the now shuttered Performance Network and Jewish Ensemble Theatre to name a few.

Some of her credits outside Michigan include work at theaters such as The Signature Theatre (NYC), Repertory Theatre of St Louis and Hartford Stage (CT). Recently, Suzi found herself on the other side of the table for a handful of years as a Talent Agent at Productions Plus – The Talent Shop where she gained perspective and respect for the process of casting for film, commercial, print and voiceover. Suzi is beyond delighted to be a part of A Jukebox for The Algonquin here at the Purple Rose where she was a proud company member a couple decades ago. She fell in love with making and sharing stories with you then and is thankful to be back in the Garage Theatre making and sharing stories with you now.

BARTLEY H. BAUER (Scenic Designer) was given the great honor 32 years ago of working with Jeff Daniels to create a new theatre venue for Michigan playwrights and actors. This is his 38th scenic design for The Purple Rose Theatre Company. Design awards include Sherlock Holmes and the Adventure of the Elusive Ear, Annapurna, Thy Kingdom’s Coming, Stanton’s Garage, Blithe Spirit, and Guest Artist. He also spent the last thirty-plus years working as a designer for many different theatre groups, most notably Williamston Theatre, Tipping Point Theatre, Michigan State University Wharton Center, Lansing Community College, Civic Theatres, community organizations, area high schools and as a faculty member of Interlochen National Music Camp. He is a Chelsea native and lives here with his family and works at Chelsea Lumber Company.

BRAD PHILLIPS (Sound Designer) is a professional musician by trade, most known on The Purple Rose stage from his many appearances with Jeff Daniels’ Onstage & Unplugged. A violinist, fiddler, mandolinist, guitarist, and vocalist, Brad serves as a Resident Artist at PRTC and has provided musical elements for All My Sons, The Last Romance, Annapurna, 2AZ, Steel Magnolias, Talley’s Folly, Gaps in the Fossil Record, FLINT, and was the sound designer for Morning’s At Seven, Harvey and all three installments of the Sherlock Holmes plays by David MacGregor. Brad also served as co-musical director, co-composer and played The Pilot in the PRTC production of Willow Run. As a performing musician, Brad has appeared with Stevie Wonder, Aretha Franklin, Iggy Pop, Pat Metheny, The Verve Pipe, Joshua Davis from NBC’s “The Voice”, May Erlewine, and many others. In 2014, he served as producer for Jeff Daniels’ studio recording “Days Like These” and the 2016 collaboration with Brian Vander Ark called “Simple Truths”. Brad holds a bachelor’s degree in Jazz Studies, as well as a master’s in Improvisation, both from the University of Michigan School of Music, Theatre & Dance where he is now on faculty, teaching music theory and Roots Music & Improvisation for string players in the jazz department. Brad is enthusiastically proud to call The Purple Rose his creative home. He would like to thank his parents, his children, and his fiancée Hope for the endless support and joy that they bring to his world. Hope, here’s to 40 million!
DANNA SEGREST (Properties Designer) is absolutely thrilled to be working on this world premiere play by Paul Stroili! Danna has enjoyed being part of The Purple Rose Theatre Company since volunteering at our first auditions in 1990. She became an Equity Stage Manager for Shoe Man (Jeff Daniels’ first play that the PRTC produced in 1991). She has stage managed many Purple Rose shows including the rehearsals of Under Ceege by Jeffry Chastang, that opened in January 2022, our “back to live theatre” season. Danna became the Resource Manager in 1994 and Resident Properties Designer after the 2000 renovations of the building and continues to wear many hats: PRTC Resident Artist, Archival Photographer, and Box Office Assistant. Danna is so happy to continue serving her theatre home. Thanks to Wade and Reeve for keeping those discs spinning in our Jukebox!

NOELE STOLLMACK (Lighting Designer) Noele’s lighting has appeared onstage at The Brooklyn Academy of Music, Sydney Opera House, Carnegie Hall, The Library of Congress Theatre, as well as the opera companies of Santa Fe, Ontario, Houston, Portland, Vancouver, New Orleans, Nashville, Madison and Milwaukee. Regional design for the theatre includes Baltimore Center Stage, Houston’s Alley Theater, Wisconsin’s Chamber Theatre, Renaissance Theaterworks, Skylight Music Theatre, American Players Theatre, Forward Theatre, Next Act Theater and Milwaukee Repertory Theatre. Some notable examples of Noele’s scenic realization and set design includes Meredith Monk’s international tours of mercy & impermanence, Giulio Cesare in Egitto, Albert Herring, Dido and Aeneas, Venus and Adonis, Rio de Sangre, Macbeth, Tristan und Isolde and Magic Flute for the Florentine Opera, Rape of Lucretia at Toledo Opera, Pagliacci with Columbus Opera, and Mirandolina for the Milwaukee Rep. As Lighting Director for the Houston Grand Opera, Noele supervised the lighting for over 50 operas and designed such productions as Andrei Serban’s Elektra, Dr. Jonathan Miller’s Der Rosenkavalier and the world premieres of Harvey Milk, Desert of Roses and Dracula Diary. Member: United Scenic Artists Local 829
SUZANNE YOUNG (Costume Designer) is proud to be a resident artist at The Purple Rose and designed her first show for the theatre, Escanaba in da Moonlight, in 2011. She is delighted to return for A Jukebox for The Algonquin. She also designed Human Error, the three Sherlock Holmes plays, Under Ceege, All My Sons, Willow Run, 33 Variations, The Spring Comedy Festival, Annapurna, Morning’s at Seven, Welcome to Paradise, and Harvey. Other credits include Michigan Shakespeare Festival, The University of Michigan, University Musical Society with Some Old Black Man, Wild Swan Theater, Performance Network, and The Tipping Point Theatre. Her work has been seen nationally and internationally. She has been a multiple Wilde Award nominee and winner of Best Costume Design for MSF’s The Importance of Being Ernest in 2014, Purple Rose’s Sherlock Holmes and the Adventure of the Fallen Soufflé in 2020, and for Sherlock Holmes and the Adventure of the Ghost Machine, in 2022. She has also been nominated for best costumes by Broadway World for the Sherlock Holmes plays and Under Ceege. Suzanne trained in London, England and has enjoyed a long career in costumes and costume design. She would like to thank the wonderful people at The Purple Rose for all their support and hard work and, of course, her husband and family.
KAREN ANNE GEORGE (Stage Manager) Originally from Royal Oak, MI, Karen graduated from Albion College in 2021 with a BA in Theatre and Economics & Management. During her time at Albion, she stage managed seven department productions, including Men on Boats, A Midsummer Night’s Dream, and Detroit ‘67. Karen joined the Purple Rose family in October 2021 as a House Manager. She moved over to the Stage Management team as an Assistant Stage Manager for Sherlock Holmes and the Adventure of the Ghost Machine, Pickleball, and Human Error, and made her debut as Production Stage Manager for In Common. She is endlessly grateful to the wonderful crew and all of her family and friends – to her parents, who taught her everything she knows, to Zach Fischer and Joel Klain, without whom she would never have made it this far, to Hannah McDermott and Madelyn Polich, without whom she would not be sane, and to Sam, for more than can be put into words.

JULIANA BERRY (Assistant Stage Manager) graduated from Albion College in 2020 with a BA in Theatre and History. Her career at The Purple Rose Theatre Company began last summer as a Production Associate Swing for Sherlock Holmes and the Adventure of the Ghost Machine. Juliana continued on this season as the Covid Safety Officer for Pickleball, as a House Manager for Human Error and In Common, and now as the Assistant Stage Manager for Jukebox. She is very grateful to be a part of The Purple Rose and this fantastic production. She has learned so much from Suzi, Paul, Karen, and this incredibly talented cast and crew. “Thank you to my wonderful parents, Dan, Jill, and Lisa, for always loving and supporting me. To Sean, thank you for being my home.”
JEFF DANIELS has been the Artistic Director of his career for forty six years. Stepping into the role at The Purple Rose, he is giving his decades worth of experience to the talented artists who call The Purple Rose their creative home. Aside from his playwriting, Jeff directed the PRTC production of Lanford Wilson’s The Hot L Baltimore (1997) and two of his own plays, Boom Town (1998) and coming this Fall, the return of Diva Royale. On film, he wrote, directed, and starred in two independent features: “Escanaba in da Moonlight” (2001) and “Super Sucker” (2002), both shot in Michigan. In 1976, Jeff became a member of New York’s Circle Repertory Company and over the decades appeared on Broadway in Fifth Of July (1980), The Golden Age (1984), Redwood Curtain (1993), God Of Carnage (2009), Blackbird (2016), and To Kill A Mockingbird (2018). He has been nominated for five Golden Globes, five Emmys (winning for “Newsroom” and “Godless”), three Tonys and won the coveted Best Actor Over Fifty Award from the AARP. This Fall, he can be seen on Netflix in David E. Kelley’s adaptation of Tom Wolfe’s 1998 novel, “A Man In Full”, as well as in Season 2 of “American Rust” on Amazon FreeVee. “Alive & Well Enough”, his one man podcast featuring stories from his career, debuts in September on Audible Originals.

KATIE HUBBARD is so pleased to be managing the business of The Purple Rose for the last 9 years. She previously lived in Milwaukee, WI and was the General Manager of First Stage, a professional children’s theater that also houses the largest theater training program of its kind in the nation, as well as being Wisconsin’s leader in arts-in-education programming. Katie hails from Rochester, Michigan and received her Bachelor of Arts in Theater from Albion College in 2002. She is also a graduate of The Purple Rose Apprentice Program and past AEA Stage Manager. Katie could not have this “dream job” without the love and support of her family. She is proud to be PURPLE.

LUCAS DANIELS is coming up on two years this September as an Artistic Associate here at The Purple Rose Theatre Company. This is the first full season, with the new Artistic Directing Team Jeff and Rhi, that consists of three World Premiers and a Michigan Premiere. Please enjoy this exciting summer production to close our 2022/2023 season, a World Premiere play by Paul Stroili, A Jukebox for The Algonquin. Lucas is a graduate of Michigan State University, 2011 (Go Green!) and a graduate of The Purple Rose Apprentice Program, 2011/2012. He is a member of Actors’ Equity Association and received his card in 2012, here at The Purple Rose. Lucas couldn’t do this job without the love and support of his family. Love You So Much, Shannon, Daphne, and Delaney.

RHIANNON RAGLAND has worn many hats at The Purple Rose over the years and is honored to return in this new capacity as Artistic Associate on another World Premiere. A Flint, MI, native and proud member of Actors’ Equity Association, she made her professional acting debut at 8 years old at the New Vic Dinner Theatre and then revived it as an adult right here at the PRTC in 2007. She then continued her artistic education with roles in more than 24 productions. As a Resident Artist, Rhiannon has worked as an actor, a choreographer, and a director since 2010, helping stage more than 15 productions and winning a Wilde Award for her direction of A Stone Carver (Best Play). Special thanks to our Board, Jeff, Katie, Lucas, Amy, Rob and Brian for your tireless motivation, creativity and leadership. And to her family, WokeD, Punk, ODawg and Nugget; I’m always inspired by you, thank you for continually building a life full of creativity and love.

MARIA KELLY (Peg/Mrs. McDarren & Josefina Understudy) is delighted to be working with The Purple Rose again. Previously at the Rose, she was an understudy for All My Sons, Morning’s at Seven, and Vino Veritas. Last season she understudied for Sherlock Holmes and the Adventure of the Ghost Machine, and went on for both Irene Adler and Marie Chartier. Maria has been a proud participant in BoxFest Detroit, and has done several staged readings with The Purple Rose, Michigan Playwrights’ Festival, Neighborhood Theatre Group, and the Ann Arbor Pub Reading Series. She was in the inaugural production at The Lakeside Theatre in Toledo, Ohio, and will appear in their next production this coming fall. She is incredibly grateful to be a part of the Purple Rose family and thanks PJ for the love and support.

*Member, Actors’ Equity Association

At this performance, the roles of Peg/Mrs. McDarren & Josefina will be played by Maria Kelly*.
SUZI REGAN (Annie Understudy) has worked as an actor, director, arts administrator, writer, teacher, arts advocate, and sound designer in the Metro Detroit area for over 35 years. You may have seen her on stage in Wild Horses last February or last summer in The Hat Box at The Williamston Theatre. Pre and during the pandemic, Suzi found herself at Productions Plus The Talent Shop where she worked as a Talent Agent. In Michigan, Suzi has worked at The Purple Rose Theatre, The Williamston Theatre, The Tipping Point Theatre, Meadow Brook Theatre, The Gem Theatre and the now shuttered stages at Performance Network and The Jewish Ensemble Theatre. Some of her credits outside Michigan include The Signature Theatre (NYC), Repertory Theatre of St Louis, and Hartford Stage (CT).

*Member, Actors’ Equity Association

LYNCH R. TRAVIS (Johnny Understudy) has received theater honors from the Ann Arbor News, Detroit News, Detroit Free Press, Oakland Press, EncoreMichigan, Lansing City Pulse and the Detroit Theatre Examiner, and Subscriber Awards at Performance Network and Detroit Repertory Theatre. Lynch is a Resident Artist at The Purple Rose Theatre, and is the PRTC Chief Diversity Enrichment Officer. Previous Purple Rose appearances include Orphan Train, Stand, Duck Hunter Shoots Angel, Escanaba, Superior Donuts, Morning After Grace, Flint, and Pickleball. He also directed Under Ceege and Human Error for the Rose. Lynch serves as Workshop Director for the Detroit Repertory Theater, is a member of the University of Michigan CRLT Applied Theatre Company, and was the Supervising Director for the 2023 Obsidian Theatre Festival which was held in downtown Detroit this past June. He has taught Acting and Theater for Ann Arbor Public Schools, Michigan Actors Studio, Mosaic Youth of Detroit, Shakespeare in Detroit, the Vista Maria Residential Program for Girls, and has lectured at Wayne State University and Oakland University. This one is for Bruce and Barbara!

*Member, Actors’ Equity Association
RYAN CARLSON (Dennis/Chuck Understudy) is a Resident Artist with The Purple Rose Theatre Company and is grateful to be returning to his home stage. He was last seen as the lovable Larry in the hit show Pickleball. Ryan has been working here since 1997, so you may also remember him from such shows as Superior Donuts, The Hot L Baltimore, The Glass Menagerie or Completing Dahlia, to name a few. Ryan has been an AEA union member since the age of nineteen. He has worked professionally all over Michigan including at the Detroit Repertory Theatre, Tipping Point Theatre, The Gem, City Theatre and Jewish Ensemble Theatre. Having done thousands of performances, he is hard pressed to pick a favorite show, but productions like Escanaba in da Moonlight, Funnyman, A Steady Rain, A Lie of the Mind, and The Tropical Pickle will forever hold a memorable place in his heart. Upon earning his Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from the University of Detroit, Ryan became Artistic Director of Planet Ant during its first two seasons as a professional theatre. Ryan would like to thank you for supporting live, local, union strong productions like this. Find out where and when Ryan's next show will be by following him on the socials. www.theryancarlson.com

RYAN CARLSON (Dennis/Chuck Understudy)

TYLER BLACK (Tyler Understudy) is very excited and honored to be a part of his first professional theater production. He graduated this spring from Wayne State University with a BFA degree in Acting and is so thrilled to have been able to continue learning here at The Purple Rose Theatre Company this summer. The majority of his theater credits come from Wayne State’s Theater Department, with the highlights being Revolt. She Said. Revolt Again by Alice Birch, which won 15 National Awards at the KCACTF Festival, and This Is Our Youth, which he directed. He wants to thank everyone who worked on this production for teaching him so much without even trying to. He also would like to thank his family and friends for always supporting him and all of his artistic endeavors. He hopes you enjoy this wonderful show!

Member, Actors’ Equity Association
A MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

From the beginning, The Purple Rose Theatre Company has aspired to be the beacon of American theatre. Founded in 1991 by Jeff Daniels, our mission has been to develop opportunities for theatre professionals while entertaining, enriching and building a loyal following. Audience commitment to the company has resulted in a fiscally solvent and highly respected arts and community partnership.

The PRTC envisions an even brighter future with increased national visibility and enriched economic and artistic health. Well-established and critically acclaimed, The Purple Rose Theatre Company will continue to be the home of world-class, original American theatre.

The Purple Rose Theatre Company is a member of the Ann Arbor/Ypsilanti Regional Chamber, Arts Alliance, Greater Brighton Area Chamber of Commerce, Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce, Culture Source, Dexter Area Chamber of Commerce, Greater Jackson Chamber of Commerce, and Saline Area Chamber of Commerce.

Actors' Equity Association (AEA) was founded in 1913 as the first of the American actor unions. Equity's mission is to advance, promote and foster the art of live theatre as an essential component of our society. Today, Equity represents more than 40,000 actors, singers, dancers and stage managers working in hundreds of theatres across the United States. Equity members are dedicated to working in the theatre as a profession, upholding the highest artistic standards. Equity negotiates wages and working conditions and provides a wide range of benefits including health and pension plans for its members. Through its agreement with Equity, this theatre has committed to the fair treatment of the actors and stage managers employed in this production.

AEA is a member of the AFL-CIO and is affiliated with FIA, an international organization of performing arts unions. For more information, visit www.actorsequity.org.

The Purple Rose Theatre Company
DIVERSITY, EQUITY & INCLUSION

The Purple Rose Theatre Company is taking actionable steps to provide and increase opportunities for marginalized artists and theatre makers. We are working with our staff, artists and patrons to create, live, and behave in ways that will respect and represent the wide diversity of souls who call the Midwest home.

The Purple Rose Theatre cares about the well-being of our artists, staff, patrons, and volunteers and is committed to diversity, inclusion, equity, and anti-racism. We can do more. And we are.

We are committed to leading with positive action and want everyone committed to our organization to join us.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

THEATRE USHERS

As a non-profit theatre, we rely on the generosity of others to help us carry out our efforts. The Purple Rose welcomes volunteer ushers throughout the season. This is a wonderful way to help the theatre and also see a show for free!

Please call the box office at (734) 433-7673 or email Tickets@PurpleRoseTheatre.org to secure your date.

LIBRARY READINGS

The Purple Rose has a long standing partnership with The Chelsea District Library. Together we share live play readings by established and rising playwrights, to promote and develop new work for our stage and theatre communities as far as our Zoom webinar can reach. Our play readings have connected us with people all across the country, from Chicago and New York, to Los Angeles and the US Virgin Islands. During our September 10, 2022 play reading, we had international attendance from west Africa, more specifically, Nigeria. Virtual attendees are able to view a live play reading and offer feedback in a group chat with the cast, director and playwright.

Play readings are free to all and take place on Saturday mornings at 10:30am, EST. To join us, visit PurpleRoseTheatre.org or ChelseaDistrictLibrary.org for more information and to register.

Jeff Daniels’ Diva Royale is coming back! First staged at The Purple Rose in 2018, this evening of side-splitting hilarity follows three midwestern stay-at-home moms whose love for Celine Dion makes them plan a last minute trip to New York City. With the return of the entire original cast, this crowd pleasing comedy is guaranteed to make you laugh 'til you cry.

*Contains adult language and subject matter.

Tickets

Tickets may be purchased by phone or online at PurpleRoseTheatre.org with Visa, MasterCard or American Express.

Full payment is due at time of reservation. Patrons may exchange or cancel tickets up to 24 hours prior to performance without penalty. Web sales fees are nonrefundable.

Group reservations for 12 or more are available at a discount of $4 per ticket. Tickets must be pre-paid three weeks prior to performance.

Gift Cards
Gift Cards are available in any amount! See the Box Office for more details.

Accessibility
The PRTC complies with all current ADA Standards. Assisted listening devices and large print programs are available upon request at our Box Office for all performances.

Hearing Loop Technology-
Switch Hearing Aid to T-Coil
Activate the telecoil (t-coil) in your hearing device to hear sound with less background noise -- directly into your device. If you do not have a t-coil enabled device, request a headset and receiver at our Box Office.

Refreshments
Please do not bring anything to eat or drink into the theatre.

No Smoking Policy
Smoking is not permitted inside the building.

Cameras and Recording Devices
The making of photographs and/or recordings is strictly prohibited inside the theatre.

Electronic Devices
During performances, please turn off or silence cellular phones, watch alarms and other electronic devices.

Babes-in-arms
Out of consideration for our patrons and performers, babes-in-arms are not allowed in our theatre during performances.

Complimentary Cough Tablets
These are available at the Box Office. To avoid performance distractions, please unwrap them prior to the performance, at intermission or during the break between scenes.

Please Remain Seated
Actors may be using the aisles for entrances and exits during the show.

Late Seating
Once the performance has begun, seating is at the discretion of the House Manager.
Thanks to you, our community is a stronger, better place.
