These are the end times... I've got a seat saved for you.

Some say theatre is dying, some say audiences don't need it anymore. For those of us who have dedicated our lives to this art form, we hear all of the rhetoric, statistics, and op-eds declaring the why's were losing our audiences but there's one person they haven't talked to. You.

Our audience members are not passive recipients of entertainment; they play an active role in creating theatrical experiences, whether they are aware of it or not.

Aristotle famously posited that watching theatrical tragedies allows audiences the opportunity to experience catharsis, or a purgation of negative emotions. Well we believe we can do that with comedy.

Here at The Purple Rose we believe that the need to gather, share, understand and listen has evolved but not changed. People come to the theatre to be with other people. The show is not the only thing. It is a big part of the thing, but not the whole thing. We want you to feel like you're meeting up with friends, seeing people you know in the lobby, we want you to know the people onstage, that work in the box office and usher, because this place, and the stories we tell, are for you. Even if that story isn't for everyone.

So we are rededicated, to you. We are using every type of humor to show we're not dying, we are thriving and that yes, maybe the world has changed but we aren't going anywhere. So if someone tells you theatre is dying, tell them we've got a seat saved for you.

DESIGNERS

DANNA SEGREST (Properties Designer) is so happy to be a part of the design team on our 10th David MacGregor production. Danna has enjoyed being part of The Purple Rose Theatre Company since volunteering as backstage dresser for our first production, Blush at Nothing by Lisa Wing. Danna became an Equity Stage Manager for Shoe Man by Jeff Daniels in 1991 and stage managed many Purple Rose shows including the rehearsals of Under Ceege by Jeffery Chastang, that brought us out of the pandemic shutdown. Danna wears many hats as the PRTC Resident Properties Designer, a Resident Artist and Archival Photographer. Danna has designed MacGregor properties from the antsy absinthe of The Late Great Henry Boyle through Consider the Oyster, two productions of Vino Veritas, a Comedy Festival, and the most wonderful Gravity; into all three Sherlock Holmes productions. She received a Wilde Award for Best Design - Props in 2018 for Sherlock Holmes and The Adventure of the Elusive Ear. Danna is grateful for this opportunity to design the props once again for a David MacGregor show, they have all been such fun! Though she never dreamed of designing a show called The Antichrist Cometh, the talented Mr. MacGregor can make a living room comedy out of anything. God bless my Wade and Reeve for sticking by it all.

MATT TAYLOR (Lighting Designer) is a professional lighting designer for live entertainment and an assistant professor at Wayne State University in Detroit, MI, where he leads the MFA and BFA programs in Lighting Design for Theatre and Dance. He is thrilled to join the team at The Purple Rose again and looks forward to bringing The Antichrist Cometh to life! His professional work covers a wide range of genres and styles of live entertainment from concerts and cruise ships to traditional theatre and dance productions. He has worked extensively in New York City, Los Angeles, Atlanta and other major cultural hubs on Broadway, Off Broadway, as well as throughout regional houses. His work can regularly be seen at the Old Globe in San Diego, Ford's Theatre in Washington, DC; Centro de Convenciones Figali in Panamá City, Panamá; Royal Caribbean Cruise Lines, Busch Gardens Williamsburg, and many others. Matt is a proud member of the professional designer's union, United Scenic Artists Local 829. To see more of Matt's work, visit www.matttaylordesign.com

FOUNDER & ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

JEFF DANIELS has been the Artistic Director of his career for forty seven years. Stepping into the role at The Purple Rose, he is giving his decades worth of experience to the talented artists who call The Purple Rose their creative home. Aside from his twenty two plays, all of which premiered here, Jeff directed the PRTC production of Lanford Wilson's The Hot L Baltimore (1997) and two of his own plays; Boom Town (1998) and Diva Royale (2023). On film, he wrote, directed, and starred in two independent features: "Escanaba in da Moonlight" (2001) and "Super Sucker" (2002), both shot in Michigan. In 1976, Jeff became a member of New York's Circle Repertory Company and over the decades appeared on Broadway in Fifth Of July (1980), The Golden Age (1984), Redwood Curtain (1993), God Of Carnage (2009), Blackbird (2016), and To Kill A Mockingbird (2018). He has been nominated for five Golden Globes, five Emmys (winning for "Newsroom" and "Godless") and three Tonys. "Alive And Well Enough", his audio memoir is available on Audible.com.

MANAGING DIRECTOR

KATIE HUBBARD is so pleased to be managing the business of The Purple Rose for the last 10 years. She previously lived in Milwaukee, WI and was the General Manager of First Stage, a professional children's theater that also houses the largest theater training program of its kind in the nation, as well as being Wisconsin's leader in arts-in-education programming. Katie hails from Rochester, Michigan and received her Bachelor of Arts in Theater from Albion College in 2002. She is also a graduate of The Purple Rose Apprentice Program and past AEA Stage Manager. Katie could not have this "dream job" without the love and support of her family. She is proud to be PURPLE.

ARTISTIC ASSOCIATES

LUCAS DANIELS will celebrate three years as an Artistic Associate here at The Purple Rose Theatre Company this September! He is very excited for this season as the PRTC will produce three productions instead of the usual four and for the first time ever, the stage will have seating in the round. The 2023/2024 season will focus on comedy and will include a reboot of a Purple Rose favorite from 2018 and two World Premieres! Next up is our spring production, the World Premiere comedy, The Antichrist Cometh by PRTC Resident Artist and veteran playwright, David MacGregor. Lucas is a graduate of Michigan State University, 2011 (Go Green!) and a graduate of The Purple Rose Apprentice Program, 2011/2012. He is a member of Actors' Equity Association and received his card in 2012, here at The Purple Rose. Lucas couldn't do this job without the love and support of his family. Love you so much, Shannon, Daphne, and Delaney.

RHIANNON RAGLAND has worn many hats at The Purple Rose over the years and is honored to be part of the Artistic Directing Team as Artistic Associate. A Flint, MI, native and proud member of Actors' Equity Association, she made her professional acting debut at 8 years old at the New Vic Dinner Theatre and then revived it as an adult right here at the PRTC in 2007. She then continued her artistic education by becoming a Purple Rose Resident Artist and a Teaching Artist for various Theatres, schools, and producing organizations throughout Michigan. Rhiannon has worked as an actor in over 25 productions, and as a choreographer and a director helping stage more than 17 productions and winning Wilde Awards for her direction of A Stone Carver and Pickleball (Best Play). Special thanks to our Board, Jeff, Katie, Lucas, Amy, Rob, and Brian for your tireless devotion, creativity and leadership. And to her family, WokeD, Punk, ODawg and Nugget; I'm always inspired by you, thank you for continually building a life full of creativity and love. And to our audiences, Welcome Back, we hope you enjoy our story!

The Sustainable Modern Homestead

The Sustainable Modern Homestead started with a set of fundamental ideas; an energy-efficient, earth-friendly home that melds interior and exterior, inviting open space into the home environment without sacrificing privacy, and that engages the surrounding landscape for its beauty, as well as its natural warmth and cooling potential.

The Sustainable Modern Homestead represents a robust collaboration between Giraffe's skilled designers, the homeowners, and our trusted construction teams. Through a series of early schematic massing and plan review sessions, Giraffe designers and the homeowners were able to develop a spatial arrangement that was uniquely suited to their family, while embracing a series of sustainable features they are passionate about. Deep roof overhangs and a careful arrangement of south facing windows create passive solar heating potential.

The Sustainable Modern Homestead combines thoughtful, clean designs with sustainable, progressive-thinking construction methods and systems. Giraffe's and the homeowners' goal is to make this type of building practice a standard for the homes we build today and in the years to come.

Follow us on Instagram @giraffedesignbuild to see our in-depth build process, and the details for our upcoming Giraffe Design Build in-studio presentation on building your own sustainable home.

A MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

From the beginning, The Purple Rose Theatre Company has aspired to be the beacon of American theatre. Founded in 1991 by Jeff Daniels, our mission has been to develop opportunities for theatre professionals while entertaining, enriching and building a loyal following. Audience commitment to the company has resulted in a fiscally solvent and highly respected arts and community partnership.

The PRTC envisions an even brighter future with increased national visibility and enriched economic and artistic health. Well-established and critically acclaimed, The Purple Rose Theatre Company will continue to be the home of world-class, original American theatre.

The Purple Rose Theatre Company is a member of the Ann Arbor/Ypsilanti Regional Chamber, Arts Alliance, Greater Brighton Area Chamber of Commerce, Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce, Culture Source, Dexter Area Chamber of Commerce, Greater Jackson Chamber of Commerce, and Saline Area Chamber of Commerce.

Actors' Equity Association (AEA) was founded in 1913 as the first of the American actor unions. Equity's mission is to advance, promote and foster the art of live theatre as an essential component of our society. Today, Equity represents more than 40,000 actors, singers, dancers and stage managers working in hundreds of theatres across the United States. Equity members are dedicated to working in the theatre as a profession, upholding the highest artistic standards. Equity negotiates wages and working conditions and provides a wide range of benefits including health and pension plans for its members. Through its agreement with Equity, this theatre has committed to the fair treatment of the actors and stage managers employed in this production.

AEA is a member of the AFL-CIO and is affiliated with FIA, an international organization of performing arts unions. For more information, visit www.actorsequity.org.

DIVERSITY, EQUITY & INCLUSION

The Purple Rose Theatre Company is taking actionable steps to provide and increase opportunities for marginalized artists and theatre makers. We are working with our staff, artists and patrons to create, live, and behave in ways that will respect and represent the wide diversity of souls who call the Midwest home.

The Purple Rose Theatre cares about the well-being of our artists, staff, patrons, and volunteers and is committed to diversity, inclusion, equity, and anti-racism. We can do more. And we are.

We are committed to leading with positive action and want everyone committed to our organization to join us.

Visit www.purplerosetheatre.org/dei/ for more information.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

THEATRE USHERS

As a non-profit theatre, we rely on the generosity of others to help us carry out our efforts. The Purple Rose welcomes volunteer ushers throughout the season. This is a wonderful way to help the theatre and also see a show for free!

Please call the Box Office at 734.433.7673 or email Tickets@PurpleRoseTheatre.org and we will send you our Volunteer Usher Inquiry Form.

LIBRARY READINGS

CHELSEA DISTRICT LIBRARY
BEST SMALL LIBRARY IN AMERICA

The Purple Rose has a long standing partnership with the Chelsea District Library. Together we share live play readings by established and rising playwrights, to promote and develop new work for our stage and theatre communities as far as our Zoom webinar can reach. Our play readings have connected us with people all across the United States, from Chicago and New York, to Los Angeles and the US Virgin Islands. During our September 10, 2022 play reading, we had international attendance from west Africa, more specifically, Nigeria.

Play readings are free to all and take place on Saturday mornings at 10:30am, EST. Virtual attendees are able to view a live play reading and offer feedback in a group chat with the cast, director and playwright.

To join us, visit our website at PurpleRoseTheatre.org or go to ChelseaDistrictLibrary.org for more information and how to register.
