NORMA & WANDA

BY JEFF DANIELS
DIRECTED BY RHIANNON RAGLAND

After our successful remount of my 2018 comedy Diva Royale, I wanted to write a sequel. The beauty of having your own theatre company, a hit play, and a cast that's as fearless as any playwright would ever want to have, made this decision a no-brainer.

In Diva Royale, our three Midwestern homemakers fly to New York City to see Celine Dion Live In Concert. Everything that could possibly go wrong does. Instead of seeing Celine, they saw a drag queen by the name of Henrik Van Schnausenhagen singing all of Celine's hits in a red evening gown and a thick German accent. "Not to worry," I said, "this time our three women will venture to an even more dangerous metropolis: Las Vegas." The cast was assembled, story ideas were kicked around, and a tentative title of "Diva Las Vegas" became my guiding light into hilarity. Only it wasn't. Turns out, a German drag queen singing the LOVE THEME FROM TITANIC is tough to top.

Unbeknownst to me, the cast assembled for a reading of my 2005 comedy Norma & Wanda. Word soon came back that, much like Diva Royale, they wanted to bring it back. That this production would be its 20th Anniversary didn't hurt. Outside of a few minor tweaks, I said okay, and soon what once was would be again.

This production also shines a light on something we're also committed to doing: giving actors you've seen before the chance to play a range of characters, challenge themselves, risk failure. As an actor, I know a little something about that.

So here we go again. Only different. What remains the same, at least to this playwright, is that what was funny twenty years ago, still is.

Buckle up.

RYAN CARLSON is a Resident Artist with The Purple Rose and is grateful to be returning to his home stage. He has performed in such shows as The Antichrist Cometh, Pickleball, Superior Donuts, Hot L Baltimore and The Glass Menagerie to name a few. At this performance, the role of Norma Randolph

HOPE SHANGLE is incredibly grateful for the opportunity to return to Purple Rose Theater Company after having played Lili in The Antichrist Cometh and previously working with the PRTC team as an understudy (My Mother and the Michigan/Ohio War and In Common) and as an apprentice! She received her BFA in Acting from the University of Cincinnati's College-Conservatory of Music. Post-graduation, Hope was lucky enough to work with The Know Theatre in Cincinnati on Afghan Women's Writing Project, The Circle Theatre on Wait Until Dark, and was last seen at Tipping Point Theatre in Every Christmas Story Ever Told and A Comedy of Tenors. The most massive "thank you" possible to Jeff, Rhiannon, Lucas, and the rest of PRTC for trusting me with this opportunity. To the best Mom and Dad in the world, thank you for your unwavering support. Phillips family, none of this would be possible without you. Brad, I couldn't dream of a better partner than you.

A MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

From the beginning, The Purple Rose Theatre Company has aspired to be the beacon of American theatre. Founded in 1991 by Jeff Daniels, our mission has been to develop opportunities for theatre professionals while entertaining, enriching and building a loyal following. Audience commitment to the company has resulted in a fiscally solvent and highly respected arts and community partnership.

The PRTC envisions an even brighter future with increased national visibility and enriched economic and artistic health. Well-established and critically acclaimed, The Purple Rose Theatre Company will continue to be the home of world-class, original American theatre.

The Purple Rose Theatre Company is a member of the Ann Arbor/Ypsilanti Regional Chamber, Arts Alliance, Greater Brighton Area Chamber of Commerce, Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce, Culture Source, Dexter Area Chamber of Commerce, Greater Jackson Chamber of Commerce, and Saline Area Chamber of Commerce.

Actors' Equity Association (AEA) was founded in 1913 as the first of the American actor unions. Equity's mission is to advance, promote and foster the art of live theatre as an essential component of our society. Today, Equity represents more than 40,000 actors, singers, dancers and stage managers working in hundreds of theatres across the United States. Equity members are dedicated to working in the theatre as a profession, upholding the highest artistic standards. Equity negotiates wages and working conditions and provides a wide range of benefits including health and pension plans for its members. Through its agreement with Equity, this theatre has committed to the fair treatment of the actors and stage managers employed in this production.

AEA is a member of the AFL-CIO and is affiliated with FIA, an international organization of performing arts unions. For more information, visit www.actorssequity.org.

DIVERSITY, EQUITY & INCLUSION

The Purple Rose Theatre Company is taking actionable steps to provide and increase opportunities for marginalized artists and theatre makers. We are working with our staff, artists and patrons to create, live, and behave in ways that will respect and represent the wide diversity of souls who call the Midwest home.

The Purple Rose Theatre cares about the well-being of our artists, staff, patrons, and volunteers and is committed to diversity, inclusion, equity, and anti-racism. We can do more. And we are.

We are committed to leading with positive action and want everyone committed to our organization to join us.

Visit www.purplerosetheatre.org/dei/ for more information.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

THEATRE USHERS

As a non-profit theatre, we rely on the generosity of others to help us carry out our efforts. The Purple Rose welcomes volunteer ushers throughout the season. This is a wonderful way to help the theatre and also see a show for free!

Please call the Box Office at 734.433.7673 or email Tickets@PurpleRoseTheatre.org and we will send you our Volunteer Usher Inquiry Form.

LIBRARY READINGS

The Purple Rose has a long standing partnership with the Chelsea District Library. Together we share live play readings by established and rising playwrights, to promote and develop new work for our stage and theatre communities as far as our Zoom webinar can reach. Our play readings have connected us with people all across the United States, from Chicago and New York, to Los Angeles and the US Virgin Islands. During our September 10, 2022 play reading, we had international attendance from west Africa, more specifically, Nigeria.

Play readings are free to all and take place on Saturday mornings at 10:30am, EST. Virtual attendees are able to view a live play reading and offer feedback in a group chat with the cast, director and playwright.

To join us, visit our website at PurpleRoseTheatre.org or go to ChelseaDistrictLibrary.org for more information and how to register.

The Classic King

A World Premiere by Richard Johnson

Directed by Jeff Daniels

January 29 - March 8, 2026

In paying tribute to timeless automobiles, The Classic King paints a comic and heartbreaking portrait of three veteran used-car salesmen at a Metro Detroit dealership, struggling to cope with a changing industry and modern customers. When a sharp Gen Z salesman joins the team, he proposes a daring scheme to save the dealership — and its “dinosaur” salesmen — from extinction.

Contains adult language and subject matter.
